Legal Department.

Section 2 of Bom. XI of 1945 empowers the Provincial Government by notification in the Official Gazette either to suspend the two Tobacco Acts indefinitely or for such period as may be specified in the notification. This Act has been re-enacted by Bom. I of 1948, with the result that it has now been put on the statute-book as a permanent measure. Since power has been taken to suspend the said Acts for a specified period or indefinitely by means of a notification, by G.N.R.D.No.7733/39, dated the 30th April 1945 the operation of the said Acts was suspended upto 31st day of March 1948 (inclusive). After Bom. XI of 1945 was re-enacted by Bom. I of 1948 Government have extended the period of suspension upto 31st day of March 1949 (vide G.N.R.D.No.7733/39, dated 24th March 1948). In order therefore to extend the period of suspension of the said Acts for a further period of one year, a notification is all that is necessary. It is not necessary to undertake any legislation for the purpose as suggested by the Revenue Department. The requisite draft notification in that behalf is sent herewith. It may be issued at any time not later than 31st March 1949.
